Dedication

The 1960 Bear Tales staff dedicates this yearbook to you, Mrs. Sara Busse.

You have had enduring patience with us while working on our class play and during our unco-operative class meetings. Most of all, you have been our friend.

Through the dedication of this yearbook, we would like to thank you in a small way, Mrs. Busse, for the two years of service you have given us.

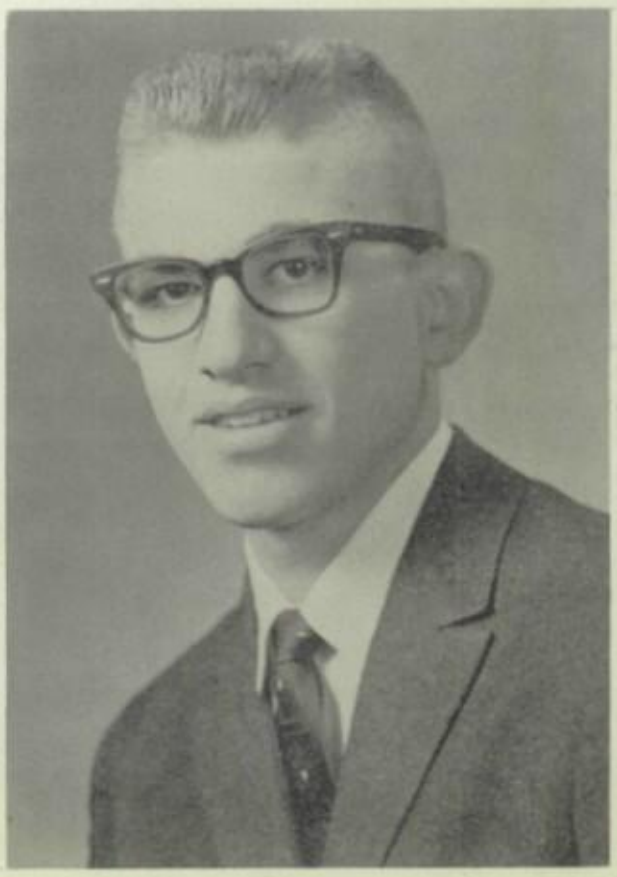
JAMES LEE BIRKY
"Most great men are either dead or dying,
and I'm not feeling so well myself."

RUTH ELAINE ELLERMEIER
"Sweet, with motives unknown."

CAROL ELIZABETH BRUNING
"She's a girl with high blush-pressure."



LARRY GENE BRINGEWATT
"He's neither a bookworm or a social hound;
just a pretty nice guy to have around."

JIM DALE BRUNING
"Never do today what you can put off till tomorrow."

MARY SUE HOBBS
"When she smiles, there's mischief in her eyes."

MARJORIE LOU HULSE
"Her heart is like the moon; there's a man in it."

MAX LEROY DEEPE
"Let the rest of them chase girls; I would rather hunt rabbits."

DONALD LEE HERMAN
"A typical "Woman's Home Companion."

MARIAN KAY LAMM
"Not too serious, not too gay, but an ideal girl in every way."

LINDA SUE MAHAFFEY
"She may appear quiet and bashful, but just wait until you know her."

RICHARD HERMAN KLEEN
"Teachers discover my faults; they never appreciate my charm."

JERRY CHESTER PARK
"His soul concern with work is how to avoid it."

JOANNE PHILIPPI
"Mischief can be found in the most innocent."

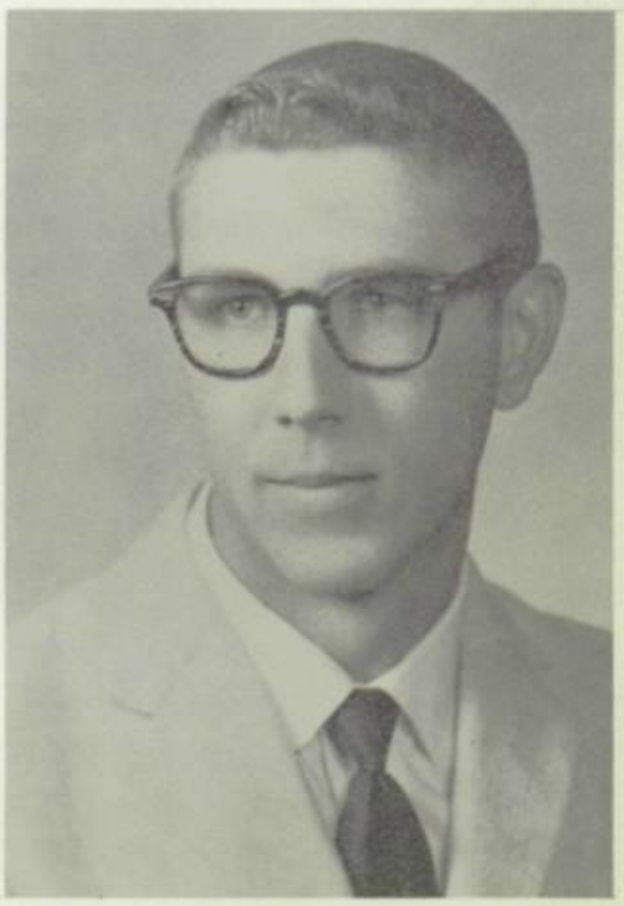
"Love 'em all; you might miss a good one."



BUFORD EARL RACHOW
"I'm not quiet; just ask me."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Carol Bruning, Randy Sayre, Ruth Ellermeier, Marlyce Haak, JoAnne Philippi, and Jerry Park started in the first grade at Bruning in 1948. In the second grade we were joined by Fred Lapcheska, and Marlyce Haak and Randy Sayre left the class. We were joined by Diana Keller in the third grade, but she left again at the end of our fourth grade term. Richard Kleen joined us in the fifth grade and Marjorie Hulse came in the sixth grade. As seventh graders, we welcomed Janice Myer, who left at the end of the year. At the beginning of the eighth grade Buford Rachow joined us; during the year Larry Bringewatt enrolled; and at the end of the year Fred Lapcheska moved away.

The Freshman Class of 1956-57 included Carol Bruning, James Birky, Larry Bringewatt, Ruth Ellermeier, Marjorie Hulse, Mary Hobbs, Linda Mahaffey, Richard Kleen, Buford Rachow, Jerry Park, and JoAnne Philippi. The following class officers were elected: Jerry Park, President; Mary Hobbs, Vice-President; Carol Bruning, Secretary-Treasurer; and Marjorie Hulse, News Reporter. Our sponsor was Mr. Parsons.

The officers for our Sophomore year were Carol Bruning, President; James Birky, Vice-President; Richard Kleen, Secretary-Treasurer; and Jerry Park, New Reporter. Mr. Rachow was our sponsor this year.

In our Junior year we were joined by Burdene Michaels, Marian Lamm, Jim Bruning, Max Deepe, Donna Waldmeier, and Donald Herman. Our officers were: Jim Bruning, President; Ruth Ellermeier, Vice-President; Mary Hobbs, Treasurer; Marjorie Hulse, Secretary; and Jerry Park, News Reporter. Our sponsor was Miss Fells. We presented our Junior class play, "The Bus Stops Here" on March 20, under the direction of Miss Fells. On May 1, we gave a Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The theme was "Stairway to the Stars." Burdene Michaels left us at the end of the year.

For our Senior year, the officers were as follows: President, Larry Bringewatt; Vice-President, James Birky; Secretary, Ruth Ellermeier; Treasurer, Carol Bruning; and News Reporter, JoAnne Philippi. Mrs. Busse and Mr. Hietbrink were our sponsors. On November 20, we presented our play, "Marrying Margaret" under the supervision of Mrs. Busse. Other highlights of our last and senior year were our sneak trip to the Ozarks, the Junior-Senior Banquet, and our moneymaking projects. On Commencement Night, May 19, 1960, sixteen happy seniors received their graduation diplomas.
